THE PINK HOTEL

COOLANGATTA, QUEENSLAND, AUSTRALIA

The Hotel itself is an artwork. Revitalised and reinvigorated The Pink Hotel one street away from Coolangatta main beach is an artists dream. Each room has been meticulously designed as an individual art piece. The hotel is becoming famous in it's own right and will now host the debut solo exhibition of Dusty Rich "Pest Control".

There is no better place to have an Art exhibition like no other. In a hotel like no other. The Exhibition will be held in the artist suite. The largest room of The Pink Hotel. The room will be emptied of all furniture (obviously not the grand piano) and all 15 artworks will be positioned around the large space. One entire room within the artist suite will be dedicated to the main piece of the exhibition. The Roach.

The address is 171 Griffith St, Coolangatta, Queensland, Artist Suite.

THE ARTIST • DUSTY RICH

South African born Artist and Comedian who now call's the East Coast of Australia home. Immigrated to Australia three years ago he has already sprayed his special mark of insanity.

The exhibition is a culmination of three years of work. Including canvas work, surfboards, custom shoes to a gigantic wood panel aerosol cockroach. The show is titled "Pest Control". The art and the comedy is an attempt to control the creative electricity that arcs out of Dusty uncontrollably. On stage he is predictably unpredictable, vibrant and chaotic. His artworks are the same.

Dusty's art will be featured in the Artist Suite at the Pink Hotel, during the day on Friday, Saturday and Sunday Dusty will be painting LIVE a three story high mural on the ocean facing wall of the hotel.

On Thursday the 7th of November Dusty will perform comedy at Eddies Grubhouse which is located beneath the Pink Hotel. Friday night will be a meet and greet with Dusty at the preview party sponsored by Young Henry's.
